

Organic Waste Converter has both environmental and pollution control: Ram Naik

Lucknow. Organic Waste Converter protecting the environment as well as pollution can also be controlled. The compost fertilizer from organic waste management will also benefit the environment and fertility of the land. The plant should be widely publicized so that it can be used commercially. This palace on Thursday at the inauguration of the Organic Waste Converter Governor Ram Naik said.

On the occasion, Chief Minister Akhilesh Yadav as very special guests were present. The garden and food processing as well as special guest Minister Paras Nath Yadav, Principal Secretary garden and food processing organic waste converter manufacturer Messrs Deepak Trivedi and Axel Industries manager Devendra Singh was also present.

During his address, Governor Ram Naik said that the palace was established in the compost from organic waste composting plant with state of the urban citizens and farmers will work Dishadrshk. He manages palace organic litter is part of a hand hygiene campaign for environmentally friendly system on the other. Compost manure palace gardens will be used along with other state parks. He said that in view of the usefulness of this plant installation of food processing organic waste converter institutions, state and municipal hospitals, etc. can be done would be appropriate. The palace is in the harvesting of the plant. A report in 2013 by the royal palace and other places the water table is relatively high.

Governor at Raj Bhavan said solar energy is being used. Raj Bhavan organic manure, cow manure and green manure is used for growing vegetables. He said it was heartening that the palace last week 'UP king's bird' the book was launched and is being inaugurated today, Organic Waste Converter.

Read in the next slides will help to recycle garbage ...

This page printed from: <http://www.bhaskar.com/news/UP-LUCK-governor-ram-naik-inaugurate-organic-waste-converter-5033171-PHO.html?seq=1>